He was an honest man, and a devoted member of Bethesda church. He was an old Federal soldier, and for several years the pension bounty of the government chiefly was his means of support. He was laid to rest at Bethesda cemetery Tuesday, by loving hands. He had many friends and no enemies. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. D. Ralston, in the absence of his pastor, Rev. W. H. Thorne.

Cotton advanced on account of the Texas drouth, and when the floods came last week it advanced on that account.....Wilson and Bryan had better stay at the fishing hole until Mexico settles her row, and thereby save their diplomacy.....When is the Selmer gin to start up, is an open question. Cotton is being picked considerably. The first bale came in Monday from Weatherford's gin, and sold at 12.50..... With plenty of hog joles and the prospect of turnip greens, why should one complain about the tariff or the Tennessee legislature..... Carman brothers are rebuilding the shop burned down some time ago, and will soon be installed for their blacksmithing and horseshoeing.....Tobe Carman and family moved Tuesday from Falcon to the old Selmer Hotel, where they have a suite of rooms.....The priests, as well preachers are guilty of murder, as shown by Schmidt in confessing to the murder of Anna Aumuller in New York..... Sorghum making is on tap. There is a pretty good crop of cane..... Perhaps since the rain the electric light plant will not be compelled to shut down again on account of water for their engine.....More people are killed by automobile disasters than the Mexican armies slaughter..... The greatest gloom ever cast over Selmer was Tuesday morning when the report of the death of E. F. Hendrix was received.....Judge Neil is fining and sending to jail the gamblers and saloonists of Nashville. There is something new under the sun.....Prof. S. A. Mynders, president of the Normal College at Memphis, died Wednesday at Put-In-Bay, Ohio.

Ballard's SNOW LINIMENT

Is the Right Remedy for All Abrasions of the Flesh.

If the wound is cleansed and the liniment applied promptly, the healing process begins at once and the wound heals from the inside outwardly, thus performing a perfect cure that leaves no scar. If the wound heals on the outside too quickly, pus forms under the surface and breaks out into a running sore that is hard to cure and inevitably leaves a bad scar.

Owners of blooded stock prefer this liniment to all others for that reason, and they use it not only on fine animals, but on human flesh. It does its work quickly and thoroughly.
